

Nuts and Bolts of the Consumer Directed Option - 1007693 - Videoconference - February 8, 2007

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM EST

Cabinet for Health Services Auditorium

275 East Main Street, Frankfort

Check <https://ky.train.org/> for a site in your area

This training will focus on the basics of Consumer Direction for Medicaid waivers, including HCBS, SCL, and ABI. Participants will learn about updated processes and the flow of work for the Consumer Directed Option (CDO).

The target audience is providers of:

- Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) Waiver,
- Supports for Community Living (SCL) Waiver,
- Acquired Brain Injury (ABI) Waiver
- Area Agencies on Aging.

Registration on <https://ky.train.org/>. Create an account on TRAIN and search by course number (1007693). Click on course title to register. For assistance contact Linda McAuliffe at (502) 564-7702 or at Linda.McAuliffe@ky.gov

Acquired Brain Injury Waiver and the Consumer Directed Option - 1007700 Videoconference - February 8, 2007

9:00 AM – 12:30 PM EST

Cabinet for Health Services Auditorium

275 East Main Street, Frankfort

Check <https://ky.train.org/> for a site in your area

This training will focus on implementing consumer direction with the Acquired Brain Injury waiver. Participants will learn about support needs for persons with Acquired Brain Injury and services available through this waiver.

The target audience for this training is Support Brokers with the Area Agencies on Aging.

Registration on <https://ky.train.org/>. Create an account on TRAIN and search by course number (1007700). Click on course title to register. For assistance contact Linda McAuliffe at (502) 564-7702 or at Linda.McAuliffe@ky.gov